

Young scholars (incl. artists), particularly students engaged in a specific research project relating to the life and works of James Joyce, are invited to apply for

The Friends of the Zurich James Joyce Foundation Scholarship 2027

Scholarships are awarded for one or two months and include a stipend of CHF 2,000.– per month, for lodging and other expenses. During their stay in Zurich, recipients can make full use of the Foundation's library and archives, participate in our reading groups, and exchange ideas with members of staff, local scholars, and visiting experts.

The scholarships are intended for researchers (incl. artists) with a well-advanced research project. They are based on merit and are awarded without regard to gender or national origin.

Applications for a Friends of the Zurich James Joyce Foundation Scholarship must include the following:

- a 400-800 word outline of your project that details the research you intend to pursue at the Zurich James Joyce Foundation;
- a short CV;
- a sample of previous work (either one short scholarly essay – published or unpublished – or a short artist's portfolio);
- your preferred period of stay.

Please send your application (one single PDF file) to the following addresses:

- friends@joycefoundation.ch
- info@joycefoundation.ch
- martin.muehlheim@joycefoundation.ch

Deadline for applications: October 31, 2027.
